Hi Kirstin,

Dan moved BG1, because Lisa mentioned the water is actually piped to a different watershed. Though, I'm not 100%. Attached is the updated location of BG1A. Do you have info or maps of this area?

Thank you so much for your help with these. I should have worked with you originally, since I'm realizing all of the others are probably very inaccurate.

Once I hear back from you, I'll re-draft letters to Ryan. Just in case he owns a claim near the new BG1A location.

Have a great weekend!!

Here are the three additional sites.

I added them to the spreadsheet. Two maps attached.

Bennett does not own the 3 additional sites.

Let me know if you need more help!
